

CONCUSSION RED FLAG SYMPTOMS

If a person has had a blow to their head, face, neck, or body, they might have a concussion. Watch for these red flag symptoms. If they show any of these symptoms call 911 and get immediate medical help.

Getting more and more confused

Severe headache that keeps getting worse

Seizures

Vomiting

Tingling or weakness in arms or legs

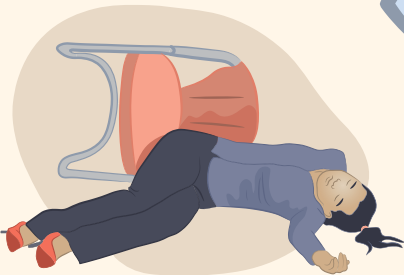

Neck pain

Double vision

Increased restlessness, agitation or aggression

Loss of consciousness